

2004 UTHF Dinner Banquet Keynote Speaker

Dr. FERNG-CHING LIN

Taiwan's Challenging-2008 and the Value Added Industry

Minister Of State , Executive Yuan
Chairman, Institute for Information Industry

Ph.D., Mathematics, State University of New York at Buffalo, USA
M.S., Mathematics, State University of New York at Buffalo, USA
B.S., Mathematics, National Tsing-Hua University

- Member, Presidential Office Science and Technology Consulting Committee (2001-02)
- Member, National Information and Communications Initiative Committee, Executive Yuan
- Commissioner, Department of Economic Development, Taipei City Government (1994-98)
- President, Taiwan Association of University Professors (1994)
- Chairman and Dean, CSIE, NTU (1987-91)
- Visiting Scholar, Electrical Engineering Department, University of Southern California, USA

Dr. Ferng-Ching Lin is one of the government leaders setting Taiwan's science and technology development policy. He is working hard on transitioning Taiwan from a manufacturing based industry toward the value added industry. Challenging-2008 Plan represents the key corner stone of the government-lead effort. Come and listen to Dr. Lin's vision on Taiwan's high-tech. Industry.

9/11/2004, Saturday, 6:30 PM

China Stix Restaurant, 2110 El Camino Real, Santa Clara (408) 244-1684

Presented by
North America Taiwanese Engineers' Association (NATEA-SV)
TECO-SF Science Technology Division

Registration: $20 per person, go to www.natea.org or call 408-573-1618